What Happened When The Warrior Went Into Action in the North Sea

Devonport, Eng. June 6.—A surviving officer of the British armored cruiser Warrior, sunk in the Jutland battle, tells an interesting story of the engagement of the British armored cruiser with German battle cruisers and light cruisers and a subsequent duel fought between the Warspite and larger ships. The first German ship sighted by the Warrior was a light cruiser with three funnels, the Warrior picking her up at a range of 1,585 yards.

SOMETHING BIGGER

"All at once a fountain of water rose twenty yards ahead of us and then we knew that we had to deal with something bigger than light cruisers. Three shells of at least twelve-inch calibre fell about the Defence and three seconds later a salvo cut her in two amidships and she crumpled up and sank. The Black Prince was the next to go. Two great shells carried away her funnels and fore turret. Then a salvo hit her in the magazine and she blew up. "Our turn was to come for far away on the horizon we could see three tripod masts. By this time the enemy light cruisers were burning fiercely and had ceased to fire, but one after another twelve-inch shells dropped on either beam of us. At last the enemy found the mark. The Stannard and the motorboat hoist into splinters. The second hit the starboard side in line with the turret. The third hit the quarter-deck, plunged downward and wrecked the dynamo. The gun turrets, too, were almost useless as the ammunition hoist had gone. Another shot put the port and starboard engine rooms out of action.

A BATTERED HULK
"By 6.30 o'clock we were a hopelessly battered hulk and waited for the shell that would finish us when the Warspite appeared and passed between us and the enemy engaging the foremost battle cruiser with deadly effect.

The first shot from the Warspite lopped off the foremast of the leading enemy battle cruiser. The next shot overturned both the foregun turrets and in five minutes the enemy vessel was ablaze from end to end, enveloped in a cloud of dense smoke.

"The second battle cruiser, which had been concentrating her fire on the Warspite, turned to starboard, smoke belching from her funnels and endeavoring to pick up her main squadron. But it was not to be. Two shells from the Warspite blew every funnel she had to pieces. The third made a great rent in her stern. Four plowed up her deck and burst against the foremast, bringing it down. "Two minutes afterwards this vessel also was on fire and heeling over with the Warspite still pounding her and ripping great gashes in her starboard side and bottom. The last we saw of her was nothing more than a broken hulk."

The Warrior was towed for ten hours and then sunk. Admiral Thomas in addressing the men on the Warspite complimented them on the important part they played in the battle.

Twice a Day for Half the Year

Someone has to attend to the furnace. Most people look on it as an irritating, dusty job. It need not be. It is not, if you have a Sunshine Furnace.

In shaking down the Sunshine, the fine ashes are drawn up the chimney; there is never that fine sprinkling of dust that lights on everything in the basement, and even floats up through the house. The Sunshine is as clean as a piece of furniture. The extra sturdy grates crush with ease the hardest clinkers. A slight rocking cleans down the ashes. The ashes fall as the grates are shaken, for the sides of the fire-pot are straight. This saves boiler and heat; because if ashes bank up around the fire-pot they stop the radiation of heat. The ashes come out in a big ash-pail. There is no shovelling or spilling ashes about.

BEHAVED WITH THE UTMOST GALLANTRY

The Empire is still vibrating under the feeling of sympathy for our brave boys at the front and pride at their glorious deeds on the Ypres salient. The Toronto Mail and Empire under the inspiration of the moment thus writes:

"On Friday and Saturday the Canadian troops in the sector between Hooge and the Ypres-Menin railway bore the shock of one of the fiercest attacks the Germans have made on the British front. To-day their loyal ones in Canada are bracing themselves to bear the shock of the casualty list. Though the first news of the battle was brief, it boded a long list, for it told that the Germans had penetrated our lines a distance of 700 yards, and that most of the ground thus lost was recovered by our troops the next day. That meant very bloody fighting, for the Canadians would not give way until resistance was impossible, and it would only be after very fierce work with bombs and bayonets that the trenches would be emptied of the Germans and recaptured by the Canadians. Both the British and the German official accounts describe the fighting as very sanguinary. A large number of German dead were abandoned on the recaptured ground. The casualty list this news foreboded has begun to be unrolled. The first names upon it are those of 103 officers. That prepares us for a long enumeration of the killed and wounded in the ranks.

Even as we bow our heads in sorrow for the brave dead and in sympathy for the wounded and for those who are bereaved, we cannot but feel prouder that we are Canadians. The sons of Canada who pushed back the enemy drive in the direction of Zillebeke and recovered the 700 yards in that furious fighting showed themselves of the good metal that is tempered in the fire, invigorating air of this country. There are better men in a pinch than those nurtured on the soil of Canada. They have the generous emulation of spirit that belongs to the manly wherever they are bred. In the British army there will be found no better men in a rush than the Canadians, none more cheerful under trial, none more self-reliant in accomplishing a purpose, none more tenacious. The men in the division that fought back the Germans on Saturday were not of the battalions most seasoned by service at the front, but in the British official statement it is said to their great honor that they "behaved with the utmost gallantry, counter-attacking successfully after a heavy and continued bombardment."

As a people Canadians have always been in good repute. In the Mother Country, in the Empire at large, and in foreign lands Canadians have been credited with many of the qualities that are deserving of esteem. Hereafter they will be praised for a virtue which in the long peace time was inconspicuous, the virtue of valor. In the future when a man is spoken of abroad as a "Canadian" the word will have something of the same kind of effect upon many minds as "a noble Roman." Our soldiers are spilling their blood freely in the great cause of humanity. We mourn the loss of life, and have fraternal compassion for the sufferers. But we should imitate their devotion to their country, to their Empire, and to their kind. We should do our duty in this crisis and try to be deserving of the fame our brave men are winning for Canada. Every civilian who calls himself a Canadian should hold himself under lasting obligation to our defenders, be always ready to defend one of them in trouble and to stand by the widows and the orphans this war is making. Especially by brisk recruiting should we show that there are more Canadians of the right stuff.

SMOTHERING THE PROTESTS

The Laurier newspapers of Eastern Canada have been diligently trying to lash up and minimize discussion of the Lapointe bilingual resolution. They have been trying to create the impression that the sweeping away of the Cousineau Opposition in the Quebec provincial elections was not due to the bilingual agitation, but because English-speaking majorities voted for the Gouin candidates. But the attempt to restore the impression that the Lapointe resolution was fostered by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the House to create a "solid Quebec" for himself and the Gouin Government is doomed to failure. It is too shallow. The working of the racial appeal in Quebec by the Laurier crowd has been going on for years, and the bilingual controversy was too good an opportunity for the Liberal leader to make use of his racial propensities.

The Manitoba Free Press, the chief Liberal organ of the West, bitterly opposed Sir Wilfrid's maneuvering on the subject, declaring he was wrecking the Liberal party. It is still refusing to be cajoled and "high-singed" into taking the medicine without further protest. It says: "Considerable ingenuity is being displayed in an attempt to minimize the political importance of the recent bilingual debate in the House of Commons. The Liberals who were responsible for forcing this issue in the Dominion House are a little dubious about the consequences, as well they may be, and would be well pleased to have the incident forgotten. Those who forced this resolution to a vote in the House of Commons are not entitled to credit, because their action had not the effect of throwing the whole Dominion into an immediate political convulsion. The Lapointe resolution was moved as an amendment to going into committee on supplies. If it had carried, the Dominion to-day would be in the midst of a general election on a racial and religious issue which would have paralyzed our national energies and eliminated us, to all intents and purposes, from the future active prosecution of our duties as a nation. Canada was placed in dire jeopardy in order that a spirit of racial fanaticism should be gratified, or in the hope that some political advantage might be gained. It was an offense against the country's welfare that should not be overlooked or forgotten."

This is a grave indictment of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, coming from so prominent a Liberal organ as the Free Press, and is a strong indication that it is contrary to the hushing-up and apologetic policy pursued by the Liberal party which would have been standing up for the rights of the English language in the British provinces. What do they say about the Free Press' statement that Sir Wilfrid was willing to paralyze our war efforts for the sake of racial fanaticism or political advantage?

BIG PROFITS IN HOTEL INVESTMENTS

Hotel investments in most parts of Canada, and particularly in Ontario, have depreciated very much in value owing to the spread of prohibition, and many owners are in despair.

But there is no need for this. On the other hand, an enormous hotel era should now open. Hotel-keeping has proved to be, and may, in Canada, be made one of the most profitable and reputable of businesses. It is the most promising field for business development we know of to-day for ambitious capable young men.

The trouble is that our hotels have been conducted on the wrong lines. The bar has been regarded as the chief object. Most hotel-keepers have not been business men but liquor handlers. Lodgings and food have been merely an incident. Some of them expected to lose money on their tables. The wastefulness of the public yet the supplying of good food and good accommodation is one of the most profitable businesses in the world to-day. In Canada it has been more or less of a disgrace to be associated with, or even seen in, an hotel. In Europe and the United States some of the richest and most prominent families are in the hotel investing and naming hotels after themselves and the hotel is becoming a social centre.

The most successful hotel-keepers are men who began in the kitchen and dining-room; who learnt the business from that end. The Ritz Hotel in Paris is probably the newest in the world to-day. Mr. Ritz, when he wrote first knew him, had just been promoted to assist in the management of the Savoy Hotel, London. The present general manager of the Ritz, Mr. Ellis, was his head waiter. Like most successful hotel-keepers they are both of Swiss birth. George C. Boldt, of the Waldorf-Astoria, and other big hotels in the States, are the largest, not the least, of the world, with a net income of well over a million; perhaps a couple of millions a year. He worked his way up from the kitchen to the front. The manager of the Plaza and other big American hotels, also worked his way up through all departments. The departments of which these men know, in their business, is the bar. It is not only the big hotels that have been marvellously successful when managed by men of capacity, who learnt the business from the ground up, and who have developed executive ability, but some of the small hotels have been remarkably profitable. We know of one hotel, in a town of only 17,000, managed by a man who began, when a boy, cutting meat in the kitchen of a big city hotel. As a result of good food and clean, perfectly appointed rooms and efficient management, the profits of this hotel have steadily crept up until, in 1915, they reached $50,000. To-day the building is being nearly doubled in size to meet the demand for good service. So little does this manager think of his bar that in his new building, he is putting it in the basement, and he is building it in a very short time, liquor selling will be eliminated.

Investors in hotel properties should deal with them as a manufacturing and retailing proposition. Manage, or have them managed, by experienced business men. Give a quality service. Advertise it, and build a reputation, just as a manufacturer does for his name or trade mark. The travelling and local public will flock to them.

KYTE'S CHARGES HAVE NO BASIS

Unfortunately for the fair fame of George W. Kyte, M.P., of Richmond, says the Winnipeg Telegram, there is no way in which he can quietly drop the silly charges made by him against the shell committee and the minister of militia. He would gladly avail himself of any means of getting out of the nasty fix in which he has landed himself through over-willingness to believe evil of political opponents. But there is no help for him now. He must go on to the end. The only thing left for him to do is to save something of his personal reputation by offering a frank apology and admitting that he was weak enough to become the tool of unscrupulous friends who deceived him into making allegations which they were too cautious to make themselves.

Resort is being had to all sorts of subterfuges to confuse the issues which the Meredith-Hull commission is actually dealing with. What is before them is not the general record of the Conservative administration but a specific accusation that the shell committee had been guilty of corrupt practices of which the minister of militia had knowledge, if he did not benefit personally.

Not a shadow of evidence has been produced to support the position taken by Mr. Kyte. Even putting the worst possible construction upon the testimony thus far given, all that can be said is that the minister, through motives of friendship, trusted Colonel J. W. Allison too much. Perhaps he did and perhaps he didn't. That remains to be seen. Colonel Allison seems to have been actuated by a mixture of patriotism and business. He does not appear to have taken more than a fair business profit out of the transactions, though he may have intermingled it with some unnecessary talk about his services to his country.

The facts in connection with the shell committee have been explained. The American Ammunition company is composed of men of capital who have gone into the manufacturing of shells on a large scale. They have executed or are executing orders for 13,850,000 of them. To call this a "mushroom" concern is absurd. They received advances from the shell committee totalling $1,500,000. Of this sum they paid out $1,035,685 to contractors, together with a further $2,600,000 of their own money. They do not stand to make more than a reasonable profit, and will have to watch their step closely in order to make any at all.

This is the whole story of a matter about which so much unseemly noise has been made. Where is there anything wrong with it? No public money has been spent improperly. Nobody has got any rake-off. The Liberals, or at least the section of them who have been backing Mr. Kyte, do not stop to realize that losses and all other munitions had to be obtained as rapidly as possible and in as large quantities as possible. This inevitably involved an advance of price which the Imperial authorities willingly paid, because they knew it to be fair. The public thoroughly understand this phase of the matter and have put Mr. Kyte's conduct down for what it is, an unscrupulous attempt to make political capital without regard to truth.

The whole enquiry has revealed merely the pettiness to which otherwise honorable men can descend when misled by prejudice. George W. Kyte and the rest of them are really decent enough fellows when they can be prevented from talking politics. It is a pity to see them running around frothing at the mouth about nothing.

The Red Cross Sewing meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. W. Walker on Thursday. We hope for a good attendance as there is lots of sewing to be done and the Red Cross Society is asking for help and hope the supplies will come in plentiful during the summer months. We are going to make a shipment to Calgary next week, so please bring in all finished work.

Service will be held in St. George's Penhold, on Sunday afternoon next there will also be a celebration of Holy Communion.
Dick Hives has returned to Penhold from the Coast with his bride. Mrs. Hodgson of Inverness, England whose husband is now in France as Quarter-Master-Sergeant with the Northumberland Fusiliers, sent a dozen of pen painting and steeling pieces as a donation to the Penhold Red Cross Society. These articles which were very much admired were very quickly disposed of and realized the sum of $18.55. The members wish to thank Mrs. Hodgson for this splendid donation.

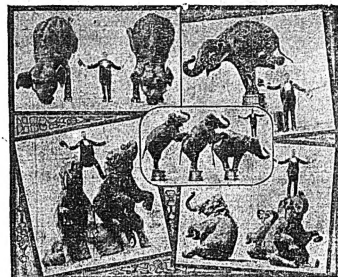

Christ The First To Fall

The Initial Casualty in This War, Says Captain

"Choose you this day whom you will serve, Christ or the Kaiser." The speaker was Captain Joe Lawson, of the 20th (Heavers) Battalion, who by the striking novelty of his appeal, has made himself one of the most successful recruiting officers in the city. Captain Lawson mounts the rostrum at a street corner meeting. A handful of passersby stop to listen. Before a dozen sentences are spoken the handful has become a crowd, and they all stay to hear what the Captain has to say. It is something like this:

"This war did not start yesterday, but dates back to the first century when the Pharisees killed Jesus Christ because he taught the gospel of love. He was the first soldier to fall in this great war. Now in the 20th century this modern Pharisee, the Kaiser, with his hateful gospel that 'might is right,' would crucify Christ anew. Young man, you can't be neutral. If you are physically fit and between the ages of 18 and 45 (and, remember, it must be the doctors at the Armories who decide whether or not you are fit), I say in bringing the heavers into the front rank of the battalion's recruiting in the city. Captain Lawson mounts the rostrum at a street corner meeting. A handful of passersby stop to listen. Before a dozen sentences are spoken the handful has become a crowd, and they all stay to hear what the Captain has to say. It is something like this:

"That is just a sidelight on Captain Lawson's gripping, street-corner speeches, and helps to explain why the heavers are forging ahead at such speed in reaching their complements.

DUNLOP TIRES
SALE OF QUALITY
AUTOMOBILE

"Now of all times Tire Buyers should absolutely know which tire companies can stand the Canada Test."

If, when purchasing a new car, you show an unalterable preference for Truly-Canadian tires—Dunlop "Traction" or Dunlop "Special"—you will find that you can get them no matter what tire equipment is on the car at the time. When any opposition is shown to giving you Dunlop Tires you can at once distrust the argument because the salesmanship which does not seek to please, surely cannot be regarded as seeking to satisfy.

City Council Meeting

The regular meeting of the City Council was held on Thursday evening last with his Worship Mayor Carswell in the chair and Aldermen Lord, Johns, Collison and Galbraith present.

COMMUNICATIONS

Ald. Botterill sent in his resignation as a member of the Council owing to having joined the 187th Battalion.

The Mayor favored leaving the resignation of Ald. Botterill's resignation over for the present. He was the oldest member of the Council and his services to city were very valuable at this time. If he could arrange to attend the meetings part of the time he would favor keeping him on the board.

Ald. Galbraith said if he could attend two out of three meetings he would favor keeping him on the board.

It was decided to leave the matter in the hands of the Mayor who would have a talk with Ald. Botterill and get his views as to remaining on the Council.

There were several letters received re debentures from bond buyers. J. G. Forster, Chief Inspector, of the Attorney-General's department, Edmonton, sent the City a copy of the Liquor Act with the request that police officers and others be made acquainted with its provisions and co-operation in enforcement.

The Bank of Toronto wrote re taxes acknowledging tax receipts.

COMMISSIONERS' REPORT

The special committee appointed at the regular meeting of the Council to look into the question of hotel accommodation after July 1st, report to a special meeting of the Council on Friday evening last. The report was received and handed on to the Board of Trade for their consideration the same evening.

Commissioner A. T. Stephenson was taken ill a short time ago with a serious attack of rheumatism and other complaints. Last week he went to Banff, and is taking the sulphur baths. He is improving and hopes to be back on duty next week.

During the heavy rains of last week the cellar and bath rooms of J. J. Coghill's premises were flooded with water from a hole under the concrete walk.

The necessary repairs were made by foreman Jones.

The City tax notices were all out by May 22nd, and the entire list was completed by May 31st.

We inserted an advertisement in the Financial Post, offering our $30,000 issue of Treasury Bills for sale; also asking for tenders for same.

We also offered the $30,000 issue of debentures for the improvements made at the Exhibition grounds. Letters were also sent to all the principal bond buyers in Canada calling for tenders for these bonds.

In response to a request made at the last regular Council meeting, we submit a list of taxes in arrears for the City.

The sidewalks have been pretty well repaired throughout the City and the dumping of refuse within the city's limits has been prohibited. The refuse in the creek bottom has been covered with earth.

The water services were all free of frost by the 31st of May, and the Hamilton service has been fixed and was in operation yesterday.

Trimming the boulevards was started this week and the park will be attended to at once.

We submit herewith list of accounts for your authorization to pay. We submit herewith list of receipts and disbursements for May.

We submit herewith departmental reports for the month of May.

The Mayor and finance committee in accordance with motion passed at the last regular council meeting waited on the manager of the Bank of Montreal on the following morning and took up the matter of financing the City to the end of the year with him.

The interview was quite satisfactory, pending the sale of Treasury Bills.

All of which is respectfully submitted: J. A. CARSWELL, Mayor

ISOLATION HOSPITAL

Having heard nothing more from the military authorities re the cleaning up of the Isolation Hospital, I thought it wise to have same cleaned up as it might be called into commission at any moment by some of the citizens becoming patients. I therefore obtained permission from the Mayor to have same done. The hospital was thoroughly scrubbed out and cleaned up and everything put into shape; and on Sunday, June 4th, the military authorities put a patient in there again.

WATER REPORT

I have been shipping water from the City wells also samples from services from different parts of the City each week. The report of June 5th showed some difference in the water, both on the same date, one sample being taken from the Armories, the other from the City Hall. It might be possible that one of the Armory being piped with 3 inch piping that at the time the sample was taken the water had been laying for some considerable time in the pipes; there not being sufficient water used to keep the water constantly on the move. This is the only reason I can give for the difference in the two samples.

Regarding the question of having a gauge on the river. I think that when samples are taken from the wells that by sounding the wells it will give rise and fall of the river, as the depth of the water in the wells should correspond with the water in the river, providing always that the intake is clear.

A blue-print showing location and situation of the wells has been forwarded to the Laboratory. I obtained same from Mr. Dave.

MARKET REPORT

Regarding the market, I am somewhat afraid that it will not be as well patronized this year as it was last, for several reasons. I have done all I possibly can to induce the farmers to come in. I advertised carefully and got crowds of consumers to attend until I myself looked a perfect fool. For the market day came and only one or two farmers put in an appearance. For this reason I have not advertised it the last two weeks. I beg to suggest that you give this matter your consideration.

CLEAN-UP REPORT

The scavenger has completed the cleanup of the city, having hauled away 25 loads of cans and rubbish that had been set out in the lanes for removal, as is the custom on cleanup day. The 25 loads were strictly cans and rubbish, other than this the people paid for the removal. 75c per dry load for the cleanup made for the removal of the 25 loads of cans and rubbish, making a total of $18.75. This is less than the cost of advertising material alone on former occasions.

The night work is still going on, and will continue for some time yet. I intend to send more complaints of different kinds each day.

DAIRIES

I have accompanied Dr. McEwan, the vet., on the dairy inspections the last two weeks and I am pleased to be able to say that the present dairies under inspection are perfectly satisfactory. Those that were not were out, as ordered by the M. H.O.

I do not pretend to have the farmers all hopping around, but I can say that some important changes have taken place, which all helps to make the milk supply in good shape.

All of which is respectfully submitted, F. H. ANQUETIL, Health Inspector.

Referred to the Medical Health Officer, Also the market report referred to the ladies.

WATER ANALYSIS

Edmonton South, June 5, Mr. F. H. Anquetil, Health Inspector Red Deer, Alberta.

Dear Sir:—Sample of water from City Hall showed 440 colonies per c.c., and no evidence of contamination.

Sample of water from Armories showed 200 colonies per c.c., and evidence of contamination. We do not understand why there should be this difference between the two samples, and would be glad of some information that might enlighten us. Have you a gauge on your river? If so we should like to have the height of the water when the different samples are taken. I see by the blue print that there is considerable difference between high and low water, and one would naturally expect a high number of bacteria when the river is highest since the bacteria from the surrounding country would be washed off by rain. Are you using the filter basin which is beside the breakwater, or has that been discontinued?

Yours very truly,
HEBER C. JAMIESON,
Acting Director.

Mr. F. H. Anquetil, Health Inspector, Red Deer, Alberta.

Dear Sir:—We received your letter saying that blue prints are being forwarded of your water system, and thank you for your prompt attention. The sample of water which was referred to in my letter of May 10th, showed 15 bacteria per c.c., and no evidence of contamination. We might say that this count was so low that we made a second one and found it agreed with our first. This is very low indeed for river water.

Mr. Kelso will report on the chemical analysis in a day or two. Yours very truly,
HEBER C. JAMIESON,
Acting Director.

License collected, May 23rd, W. J. King, photographer, half year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

CHAS. ANDERSON, Chief of Police.

FIRE CHIEF'S REPORT

June 8th, 1916
Gentlemen,—I beg respectfully to report that during the month of May, 1916, the Fire brigade held ten practices with average attendance of 14 men. One fire at C.P.R. freight office, 21 men answered call, 350 feet of 2 1/2 inch hose and 45 gallons of chemical was used, damage done about $150.00.

Two hundred and fifty feet of 2 1/2 in. hose in very bad shape, having several small leaks in each length, and is no longer to rely on in the event of having to use it at any time with high pressure. It has been necessary to replace two dip pans in chemical tank, the old ones having rusted through. The brigade are filling up vacancies caused by members having enlisted, having already seven new men and several more applications in from others, horses have been trained regularly every night. There has been 135 loads weighed on the city scales during the month of May.

Respectfully submitted, A. TAYLOR.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON HOTEL CONDITIONS

The following is the report of the Special Committee appointed to report at a special meeting last week; City Commissioners and Council.

Gentlemen—Your committee appointed to investigate hotel conditions in Red Deer, beg to report—

The Arlington Hotel will operate until the end of June under present management and on July 1st, it is unlikely that it will be operated by the Lessees, and while we have not had an opportunity of interviewing the Lessor, our impression is that if the hotel is to be operated after that date, the operation will apparently have to be by a third party.

While we do not recommend interfering with the personal affairs of the interested parties, we believe a satisfactory third party is available for this service, and in the interests of all parties concerned and to insure a continuity of service in this particular hotel, it appears to be in order that the good services of the Board of Trade be enlisted.

There is a probability of the Windsor Hotel being operated at an early date, although we have no positive assurance.

The brick portion of the Alberta Hotel is operating and accommodates about fifteen transients.

We cannot report on the Alexandra Hotel at this date.

It is very necessary in the interests of the town that the present hotel accommodations be maintained, if not increased, particularly as under the proposed new Railway schedule, the operation of trains after June 5th makes it impossible to arrive in Red Deer by train, transact business and leave by train the same day.

In further reference to railway schedule, we believe a great injustice is being done Red Deer in that it will be impossible for anyone having business in Red Deer to attend to it without unnecessary loss of time and expense; and it is represented to your committee that the shipment of cream from Red Deer will be materially reduced because of the inability of the shippers to get their stock in time for the morning train and there being no facilities provided for the storing of the cream under favorable conditions over night.

We feel under the circumstances we are justified in making this reference as it has immediate connection with the question of hotel accommodation.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Red Deer, June 2, 1916

(Signed) W. E. LORR

JOHN COLLISON

Victorious Slavs Driving Austrians Like Great Herd of Cattle

Berlin Admits the Correctness of Petrograd Reports--An Additional Toll of 13,714 Prisoners Has Been Taken in the Wirlwind Rush

AUSTRIAN FRONT BROKEN. London, June 9.—Information has reached the Russian embassy in Rome that the Austrian front has been completely broken along a length of 94 miles to a depth of 374 miles, according to a Central News Agency dispatch from the Italian capital to-day.

The Russian advance, according to these advices, now threatens to envelop the entire Austrian army in the region affected, the Austrians finding themselves attacked from both the east and the north.

The Austrian Slav regiments are declared to have been seized with panic during the first attacks by the Russians and to have surrendered without any real resistance.

SUCCESS CONTINUING

London, June 9.—A Russian dispatch from Petrograd to-day reports the continuation of the Russian successes in Volynia and Galicia. The capture of an additional 135 officers and 13,714 men is announced.

DRIVEN LIKE CATTLE

Berlin, by wireless to Sayville, June 9.—It is announced at the Austro-Hungarian headquarters under date of June 8 that the Austro-Hungarian troops in Volynia have reached new positions on the River Stry after rearguard engagements with the Russians. It is also stated that the Russians are again attacking with strong forces on the Lower Stripa in Galicia.

Paris, June 9.—The Germans have launched a general attack along the right bank of the Meuse and have penetrated the French line at one point, but were repulsed elsewhere with heavy losses, according to an official statement issued by the war office to-day. The point where the Germans entered the French line is in the neighborhood of Thiamont farm. The Germans also made two small attacks, southwest of Hill 304, but these attacks, the statement says, were repulsed.

DEEPLY REGRETTED

Paris, June 9.—The fall of Fort Vaux with its gallant little band of defenders is deeply regretted, but public opinion is not discouraged. The withdrawal of the French line to the inner defences of Verdun on the right bank of the Meuse, which was foreseen by military writers as a natural consequence of the capture of the fort.

Greece Gets Rough Jolt From Allies

Is Served With Notice That The Time For Friendship Is About Over

London, June 9.—The official press bureau states that the Entente Allies have informed the Greek government that as a result of its negotiations with Bulgaria and Germany they would take all measures necessary to enforce the treaties safeguarding Greek unity and the Greek constitution.

In consequence the Greek commander of the port of Salonika has been replaced by a French naval officer and entry to the port has been refused to Greek ships from Kavala. An embargo has been placed on Greek ships in French ports.

Battle On Canadian Front Raged For Two Days

Graphic Account of Deaths of Col. Buller of Princess Pats and Lieut. Col. Baker

MEN FIGHT DESPERATELY TO RECOVER BODY OF THEIR LEADER

London, June 7.—The tremendous German thrust to break the Canadian line from Hooge to Hill 60 seems for the time at least to have spent itself. From an officer who was in fighting yesterday noon, I learn that the last great attack, early Tuesday morning, was completely shattered by the terrific artillery fire which the Canadian and English batteries poured into the Huns before Hooge and Sanctuary Wood. Heavy losses among prominent Canadian officers have already been cable to Canada. These lists do not include men who fell during Monday and Tuesday fighting.

HOW COL. BULLER DIED

Lieut. Col. Buller, of the Princess Pats, flourishing a stick, dashed with the remnants of the "Pats" into a large crater which the Huns were protecting. A wounded officer tells me that he (Buller) was wounded before an exploding bomb killed him. They fought like fury to recover his body and it is believed he was brought back to the Canadian lines.

Lieut. Col. Baker, also, who was seriously wounded, insisted in carrying on and fell surrounded by his men when shrapnel burst within half a yard of him.

Details of what our guns have done and are still doing are interesting. It has been the most tremendous artillery combat known in the British lines and concentrated on a long narrow front line of sections of about a mile. For three days and nights each side has kept up its barrages.

The Germans with an amazing audacity advanced some of their batteries to a few hundred yards behind our posts and they had gun after gun put out of action. During the last few days they have abandoned these tactics as they are too costly even for the Huns, and their batteries have been quiet except where they thought we were prepared for a counter attack. Heavy guns on either side have never ceased. We have done tremendous damage to the light railways and main roads where were gathered German reserves, and the British battle squadron on Sunday and Monday bombed far behind the German lines.

On Monday afternoon and on Tuesday a southwesterly gale blew up and made air work difficult. Yesterday there was also a heavy rainstorm which has churned earth of "Dead Man's Land" into a morass over which it would be impossible to carry an infantry attack.

The fiercest fighting seems to have shifted further north of the trenches held by British regiments. These already have repulsed several onslaughts and general opinion is that the lines as they are will hold out whatever suicidal attempt is made by the enemy.

An interesting suggestion has been given me by a Canadian staff officer that the Germans hoped to get through the Canadian lines, but failing this at any cost they intended to inflict such severe losses on Dominion troops even at terrible prices of German lives, that it would be impossible for Canadians to figure in any strong offensive which might be planned.

The battalions are rapidly being gilled up.

Letter From Lieut.

A. R. Gibson

Lt. A. R. Gibson writes:—
17th Canadians,
East Sandling, Kent., Eng.,
May 21, 1916

My dear Mr. Boyce—At last my kit is packed. I am under orders for France after eight long months here. And what is more I am going to the best Canadian battalion (of course that is a matter of opinion), of the 13th, the Royal Highlanders of Canada. So I shall change from the Seaforth to the Black Watch tomorrow. Read Aiken's book "Canada in Flanders" about the 10th, 13th and 16th battalions at Ypres and Festubert.

A man is a fool to be glad to leave this beautiful England, to go to such an unhealthy place as Flanders. But I have been eating my heart out to get away and at last the realization is near. Most of the men who come over with me are with the 13th and I had a letter from Billy Wilson in which he told me the boys are hoping that I would be with them. I know the officer who wrote Dr. George about Desmond, in fact I saw him the other day. He had a great piece of his thigh blown away by the same shell that did for poor Desmond.

Our old battalion, the 63rd, is here now, and I have been down several times seeing the boys. They are looking splendid, but I fear that they will be broken up and used as a reserve battalion.

Hampshire Destroyed An Hour After Earl Kitchener Embarked

Lost Cruiser on Fire Before She Sank in Wild Storm

Aberdeen, Scotland, June 9.—The British cruiser Hampshire was seen to be afloat before she sank off the Orkney islands, while bound with Earl Kitchener, the British war minister, to Russia, according to statements of men on trawlers and steamers arriving here from the Orkneys. The disaster occurred last Monday night only an hour after Earl Kitchener and members of his staff had embarked on the cruiser at the extreme north of Scotland.

One trawler reported that the warship appeared to have blown up, although no sound of an explosion was heard, probably on account of the terrible storm that was raging. Twenty minutes after she was seen in distress and on fire, the Hampshire sank between May and Hrough of Birway, off the western coast of the mainland of the Orkneys.

The raft from the cruiser which was flung ashore with 12 men from the Hampshire clinging to it was discovered by a policeman who was searching along the May and Hrough coast. The men were battered and exhausted. A few of them murmured "Kitchener was on board," and then fell asleep. About 30 bodies were found along the cliffs, many of them still warm.

In their terrific battle with the sea, the clothing of some of the men had been torn from their bodies. Their hands and feet had been mutilated in desperate efforts to climb the cliffs. According to reports, Earl Kitchener and the members of his staff were placed in one of the ship's boats which were clear of the wreck but was swamped in the terrible sea that was running.

Allies Forced Greece To Demobilize Its Army

Paris, June 9.—The demobilization of the Greek army is regarded here as the direct outcome of the energetic measures by the allied governments recently taken in making joint representations to King Constantine followed by an embargo virtually closing Greek ports. The demobilization of twelve classes of the army means the sending back to civil life of exactly half the army, primarily composed of twenty-four classes.

The mobilization has been unpopular from the first with the Greek people owing to its harmful economic effects and this is further to have influenced the taking of the step as well as the fact that the government hopes thus to gratify a large number of supporters of former Premier Venizelos in the army who desire to resume the civil life.

North Red Deer Council

The regular meeting of the Council of North Red Deer was held on Monday evening last with Reeve Durand and Councillor Jasper present. Councilor Mohring was out of town. The minutes of the last regular meeting and of two special meetings were read and ordered signed. The following accounts were read and authorized to be paid: Harry Goodall $67.75; John Green $33; L. Hovey and $20.15; Ed. Anderson $250.37; Great West Lumber Co. $1.26; City of Red Deer, for taxes, $9.40; Douglas Printing Co., Ltd. for register of forfeited lands, $0.00; Advocate $5.25; John Carswell $5; Dr. McEwan $2; Western General Electric Co., Ltd. $21.25; H. G. Stone, $15; Western Municipal News $11.95; Sundry cash items $21.72.

The report of Inspector Dalgleish was read, showing that the village was in a very clean condition, and the census taken while making the inspection of the village gave a population of 363, but this did not include those living at the Government. The large item of $250.37 for graveling the main road along the school property. Application has been made to the Registrar for some fifteen properties which have been forfeited for non-payment of taxes, under the 1915 Tax Enforcement Return. His Honor, Judge Mahaffy, will hold Court of Confirmation in the village office on Thursday, the 15th of June, to confirm the 1916 Tax Enforcement Return. Those still owing taxes for 1915 should make an effort to pay same before that date and avoid further costs being added.

There was very little of important business before the Council at the meeting excepting the announcement made by Reeve Durand when he tendered his resignation, in writing, as Reeve and Councillor. This came as a surprise to those present and on no account would he reconsider his decision. Owing to the necessity of having him sign certain papers the following day Mr. Durand held his resignation till his duties as Reeve had been completed.

His only reason for resigning was his determination not to put up any longer with what he described as kicking on the part of Councillor Mohring whose criticism he compared to "putting a stick in the wheel." The climax was reached, however, when Councillor Mohring took an active interest in a trial which was being held before P. B. Kent, J.P., recently, when Reeve Durand was prosecuting two residents of the village for unlawfully relating the Pound by-law by allowing their cows to run at large. Mr. Durand requested that his letter of resignation be published. Councillor Mohring contends that any criticism he has offered has been in the interest of the village and that he is quite justified.

Reeve Durand's Letter Council of North Red Deer—
I have decided to resign my seat as Reeve and Councillor. I am not able to stand the kick any longer. You had better take another one—maybe he will do better than I do. I haven't got a word to say against Mr. Jasper. I haven't got a word to say against Mr. Welton, our Secretary-Treasurer. Hoping this will give you satisfaction.

Yours truly,
(Signed) A. DURAND

Severe Rebuke to

Messrs. Kyte and Carvell Criticized by The Ottawa Free Press

Ottawa, June 1.—The amazing repudiation of responsibility by Messrs. Kyte and Carvell for the charges now being investigated by the Meredith-Duff Commission has called forth from the chief Liberal paper in the capital a severe rejoinder. The Ottawa Free Press asks why Mr. Carvell waited until this late date to define clearly his position, and how he reconciles his present attitude with his boasts since the Commission was appointed that he would drive Sir Sam Hughes out of public life.

"There is not the slightest shadow

Letter From T. Wright

Canadian Convalescent Hospital, Bear Wood, N. Wokingham, Berks, Dear folks,—I am in Royal "Bark-shire" at present, enjoying myself to the utmost. It is a wonderfully beautiful place, about five miles from Reading where we are. The house and estate of 1300 acres belong to the owner of the London "Times". The grounds are magnificent, being laid out by Rhododendrons, which are in bloom now. The house itself consists of 355 rooms, and we are allowed through it at our free will. There is a great library and a magnificent collection of African game trophies, including a giraffe, lion, rhinoceros and dozens of different antelope heads.

I will be here at least six weeks. I expect. We do a bit of "physical jerks" and short marches. It is funny how they tire me out. I was offered a job as officer's servant to-day but I don't like the idea of the work, although it would be a snub, and like I am permanent. But I still hope to get across to France, so I turned it down.

We are allowed to the little town of Wokingham every day after 3 till 9 p.m. It is a great little place, slightly bigger than Red Deer. I was there on Sunday afternoon and the people there seemed very nice. I had two teas and a supper on their hospitality—not so bad, eh? It was the first time the patients had been allowed out, so we were quite a novelty.

Yesterday I visited the little newspaper office and the old editor took me around the place himself. He was quite as peculiar as Mr. G., and very much interested in our different methods over there. He has a Belgian compositor, a very nice boy.

We get great grub here and half a pint of beer at noon. You should see everybody rush for a place alongside me for to get my share. I guess I will quit now, hoping you are all well and you Daddy are at more profitable work than brush cutting by this time.

PRIZES FOR FLEECES

War has brought about a demand for wool which is unprecedented in history, and has given a stimulus to the sheep breeding and wool growing industry throughout the world. In order to encourage Alberta to do its bit toward providing for the needs of the soldiers by producing the best quality of wool, the Edmonton Exhibition Association has arranged three competitions for the Fair on July 10th—15th, for the best fleeces of long wool, the best fleeces of medium wool, and for the best fleeces of fine wool, with three generous prizes in each competition. Complete fleeces in the grease alone will be accepted. Exhibitors must be residents of Alberta. Manufacturers and dealers are excluded from this competition, which is for show breeders alone. Arrangements will be made to dispose by auction of all fleeces not reserved by the exhibitors, at the close of the fair.

of doubt." The Free Press continues, "That Messrs. Kyte and Carvell deliberately endeavored by manipulation by half-truths to create the very impression that was actually created on the public mind." The Free Press says that there can be only two interpretations placed on Mr. Carvell's disclaimer; one is that he and his associate from the Maritime Province were not sincere when they passed criticisms on the Shell Committee and General Hughes, that they did not intend these criticisms to be taken seriously by anybody but the voters in the constituencies, and that the last thing they wanted was the thorough investigation which they pretended to be demanding, and which they got. Mr. Kyte's speech was to have been the closing one in a debate in which many vague accusations had been made. He seems to have "sailed too close to the wind," and brought on a catastrophe for which Mr. Carvell now seeks to repudiate responsibility.

"The other interpretation is that Mr. Carvell is seeking to cover up the fact, so far from proving the charges of Mr. Kyte and himself against the Shell Committee and Sir Sam Hughes, they have completely failed."

Concluding its criticism of Mr. Carvell's position, the Liberal paper says that Mr. Carvell does not represent the Liberal party in his amazing conduct, and that a very large proportion of thinking Liberals from the first dissociated themselves from him in the matter of his reckless and unwarranted charges against the Imperial Shell Committee and Sir Sam Hughes.

At the meeting of the Executive Committee held last Monday seven new applications for relief were passed upon.

A soldier's wife with one young child receives each month $10.00 for herself and $5.00 for the baby. Now Mr. Editor in the whole of Red Deer there are only 24 men subscribing enough per month to care for one baby each. Think of it Sir, men with good businesses and good positions, able to remain at home in safety and with their families and yet not paying enough to care for one young baby. There are merchants and professional men in this town who pay only $1.00 or $2.00 per month and then have to be asked for it time and again. And there are others who do not contribute one cent to the care of our soldiers' families. It is I believe, Sir, the duty of every woman in Red Deer to see that her husband subscribes a liberal sum to the Canadian Patriotic Fund, and that he pays it too.

We can cheer and urge men to enlist but when it comes to taking care of their families we leave it to some one else, trusting that the Lord will provide.

Yours truly,
J. E. CUNNINGHAM
Honorary Secretary-Treasurer
P.S.—This applies to our farmers also.

Hillsdown

We regret to learn that Lieut. Geo. Smith, who was reported wounded a short time ago, has succumbed to his wounds, having received a compound fracture of the skull. Lieut. Smith, who was one of the first to enlist from this district, left here as a private of the 5th Battalion, and had worked his way up through the ranks to obtain a commission on his merits. A quiet, unassuming fellow, he was in good circumstances, when he threw up everything at the call of "King and Country" and he has now made the supreme sacrifice. He will be much missed by his many friends. His parents came from Bedford, England, about 10 years ago, and are farming near Boissevain, Manitoba.

V. B. Day, of Red Deer, Meets Sad Death

V. B. Day, a trainman on the C.P.R. and an employee of that company out of Red Deer for several years was killed at Veteran, Friday, by being caught between the draw bars of two freight cars. He was so badly crushed in the accident that he died five hours later.

At an inquest held Friday night at Coronation, accidental death was the verdict returned. It was also made clear at the inquest that the death of Mr. Day was not due to carelessness on the part of any of his fellow-employees or himself. It was an accident pure and simple.

He leaves a wife and child in this city to mourn his sudden death. The body was taken to his old home in the United States for burial.

Let Best furnish that new home for you.

COAL, WOOD AND CARTAGE

Sole Agent for

Galt Coal, Briquettes, Hard and Best Steam Coal

Copy of a Letter Received a Few Days Ago

Mr. A. Clutterbuck, Red Deer, Alberta.

Dear Sir:—If there are any hard coal users in Red Deer who can afford to lay in their coal during the summer, I would strongly advise you to keep after them until they place their order. Our mines have only enough men now to work half time, and we do not expect the situation to improve any between now and the winter. If we have any cold weather at all next winter, coal is going to be very scarce, and any of your customers who can afford it should protect themselves during the next two or three months.

Yours truly,

B. F. COON,

Sup't Coal Agencies, Canadian Pacific Railway, Department of Natural Resources.

MORAL: Secure your hard coal now while the buying is easy.
